Brodhead Law, LLC helps other attorneys increase case value

Ben C. Brodhead, an honors graduate of Harvard Law School, has been a leader in the field of catastrophic injury and wrongful death litigation for more than 15 years. The firm's primary focus is on tractor-trailer litigation, a field in which Brodhead has recovered tens of millions of dollars for his clients. The firm's success is based on clear principles: provide hard work, sophisticated strategies, and ample resources to recover the highest possible value for each client and each referring attorney. Brodhead's efforts and accomplishments in catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases have earned him inclusion on the Georgia Super Lawyers list for the last nine years.

Brodhead Law has built a team of legal professionals that can handle the most complex issues with the highest level of skill, innovation, and customer service. Quite simply, if you have a catastrophic injury or wrongful death case, there is no better firm to associate than Brodhead Law.
