BRODHEAD LAW, LLC HELPS OTHER ATTORNEYS INCREASE CASE VALUE

Ben C. Brodhead, the founder of Brodhead Law, LLC, has been a leader in the field of catastrophic injury and wrongful death litigation for 15 years. The firm's success is based on clear principles: provide hard work, sophisticated strategies and ample resources to recover the highest possible value for each client and each referring attorney. In fact, these principles resulted in payments of nearly $5,000,000 to referring attorneys in 2012. Brodhead's efforts and accomplishments in catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases have earned him selection to the Georgia Super Lawyers list for the sixth year in a row.

If you need to associate another attorney to help you increase the recovery in a catastrophic injury or wrongful death case, we encourage you to contact Ben Brodhead directly. Brodhead devotes a substantial amount of his time to helping other attorneys with their cases, and he is happy to offer insight and advice, even in situations where Brodhead Law is not formally associated on the case. If Brodhead Law is associated on your case, then the referring attorney receives a share of the recovery that is consistent with legal and ethical standards.

Brodhead Law has built a team of legal professionals that can handle the most complex issues with the highest level of skill, innovation and customer service. Quite simply, if you are working on a catastrophic injury or wrongful death case, there is no better firm to call than Brodhead Law.
